PENROSE'S HAND STILL ON THE CONTROLLER

Ford Runs Second to Brumbaugh as Choice for President in Pennsylvania,

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.-While returns from the State primary elections of yesterday are not half complete, it is evident that Senator Boles Penrose retains his control of the Republican organization by a large majority.

Nearly all the National Convention delegates chosen belong to the Penrose machine and will be uninstructed. It is a question whether Governor Brumbaugh, who led the opposition, has been elected one of the twelve delegates-at-large. He ran far shead in Philadelphia and Pitts-Philander C. Knox was named by the Republicans as candidate for United States Senator to succeed SenatorOliver.

Gov. Brumbaugh was the only Presidential candidate on the ticket for endorsement for the Fresidency, but a large number of voters wrote in the names of Roosevelt, Henry Ford and Hughes. In forty-seven wards of Philadelphia, where the count is complete, there were 55,339 votes for Brumbaugh, 3,197 for Ford, 1,281 for Roosevelt and 288 for Hughes. Ford's name was written on a number of name was written on a number of Democratic ballots, also. In the Democratic primaries, all the delegates chosen are for President Wilson. A. Mitchel Palmer was re-elected Democratic national com-

PREPAREDNESS NOTE.

For the 20,000 delegates to clubscoman's biennial next week, New York committee will have ready 400,000 hairpins, 5,000 fans, 200 pairs of scissors, 10,000 pencits, 20,000 writing pads, 100 bottles of emelling salts, and pink and white face powder.

ANOTHER COURT NEEDED.

Additional Term to Be Held for Indicted Persons Who Are On Batt. At the request of District Attorney Swann, Presiding Justice Clarke of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court has assigned Justice Benton to hold an dditional term of the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court beginning next Monday. Justice Benton will sit in one of the court rooms of the General Ses-of the court rooms of the General Sessions Courts, in the Criminal Courts Building.

District Attorney Swann said to-day that the additional court was required for the disposition of indictments of persons who are out on bail. Justice Shearn will preside in the regular term of the Criminal Branch, Surpreme Court, at the same time, and will dispose of the Walte and Rofrano murder cases.

The illness of Judge Malone of General Sessions has caused cases in which defendants were able to give bail to be postponed while the Courts were devoting their time to cases of prisoners held in the Tombs.
